

ST. RICHARD'S SCHOOL

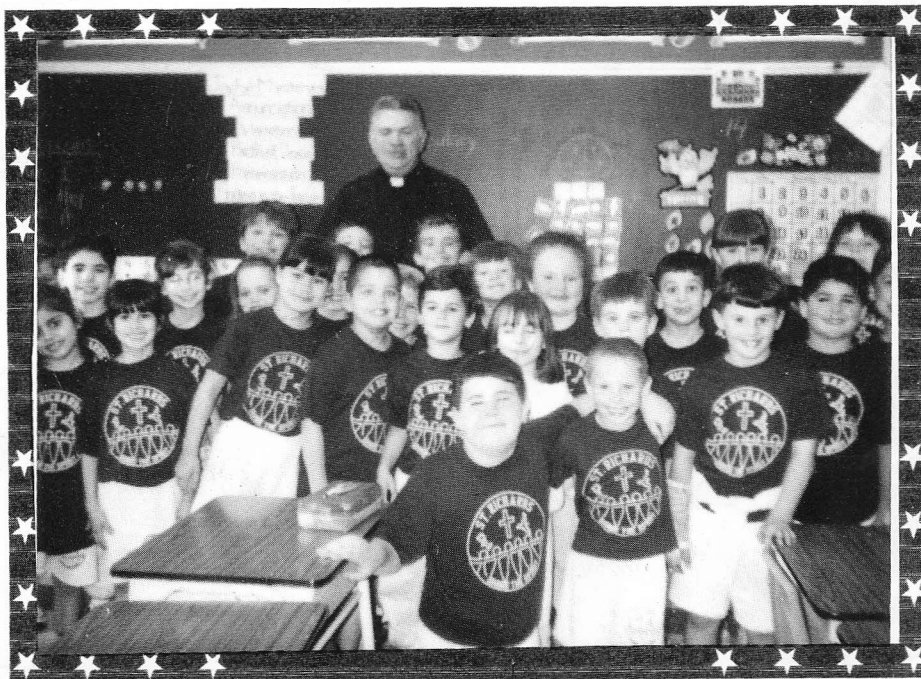

1999-2000

Dedication

"There was a man named Joseph, and he loved."

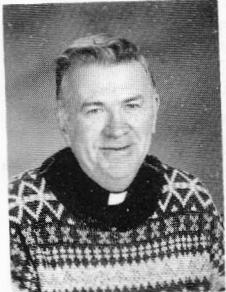

Rev. Joseph Gallagher has been faithfully serving St. Richard Parish and School for the past 10 years. He has been a part of many memorable occasions, including the recent celebration of the Parish's 75th anniversary.

In addition to his role as pastor, Father Gallagher visits our school daily, taking an active role in the educational and spiritual lives of our students.

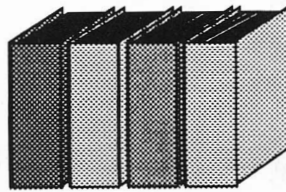

For your love and devotion to our Lord, His Mother, Mary, our parish and school, we thank you, Father Gallagher, and dedicate the 1999-2000 yearbook to you.

Like flowers they grew and grew...

We're on our way.

Remember When.....

...Lenny sat on tacks.

...Miss Borda told stories.

...the map fell on Nat R. and Ryan caught it.

...Miss Tucci made a homemade tornado and it exploded on Nat D.

...we used to count Miss Coats' sneezes.

...Amanda broke the St. Michael statue in 5th grade and Nat R. broke it in 7th.

...Michael and Lenny ruined Miss Merola's new leather jacket.

...Anthony threw up everyday in 1st grade.

...we all had the chicken pox in Kindergarten at the same time.

...Amanda went to go throw out a piece of paper and she collapsed on the floor.

...Mrs. Polizzi fell down the stairs during the fire drill.

...white out exploded on Miss Tucci's black outfit.

...we had quotes in 6th grade.

...Amanda, Nat R., and Nat D. sucked up a key in the computer room with a vacuum cleaner.

...Nat R. had water in her mouth and Ryan made her laugh and she spit the water all over him.

...Lenny fell or dropped something everyday in 8th grade.

...Charlie tripped over Nat D's desk and fell flat on this face

...Bryan always had to clean his glasses and wash his hands in 6th grade.

...the Plaster of Paris hardened in a bucket during a science experiment in 5th grade.

...everyone broke their thermometers during a science experiment in 5th grade.

...Miss Tucci called Nicky G. "Detective Ghionni".

...Charlie didn't know what a compound word was.

...Nadia brought a reading book instead of holy book to Adoration in 5th grade.

...we sang the national anthem everyday in 4th grade for the Flyers.

...we were practicing the Litany and Richie said the girls part.

...Nadia was asked, "What are the people in Alaska called?", and she said "Eskimos".

...Mrs. Polizzi said she was going to change our sheets instead of our seats.

...Nicky G. jumped over the school bags and broke his arm in 4th grade.

...our flags fell during the May Procession in 7th grade

...Angel said, "Bambino" out of nowhere at volleyball practice.

...Bryan and John P. sang "Do You Love Me" on the way home from school.

...Nicky B. was absent everyday that we had a test.

...Brandon jumped over the cheerleaders.

...Bryan always made sentences that contained the phrase "jump off the roof", in 8th grade.

...Nat R., Nat D, and Angel went to Academic Challenge and they tried to figure out which way the Titanic hit the iceberg with their hands all the same time.

Remember Sister Barbara

What If.....

...Nat D. wasn't so small.

...Nat R. didn't think she was a princess.

...Nadia didn't dance.

...Jackie never smiled.

...Amanda actually gained weight.

...Angel wasn't so nice.

...the girls stopped laughing.

...Ryan never made us laugh.

...Nicky B. never got in trouble.

...David talked.

...Bryan never said, "Hi".

...Nicky G. never had a comment.

...Antonio wasn't so athletic.

...John P. didn't have a sense of humor.

...John W. wasn't so tall.

...Richie wasn't so calm.

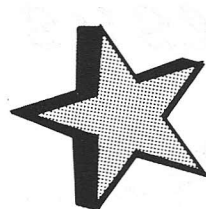

...Chalie wasn't so ticklish.

...Brandon forgot his manners.

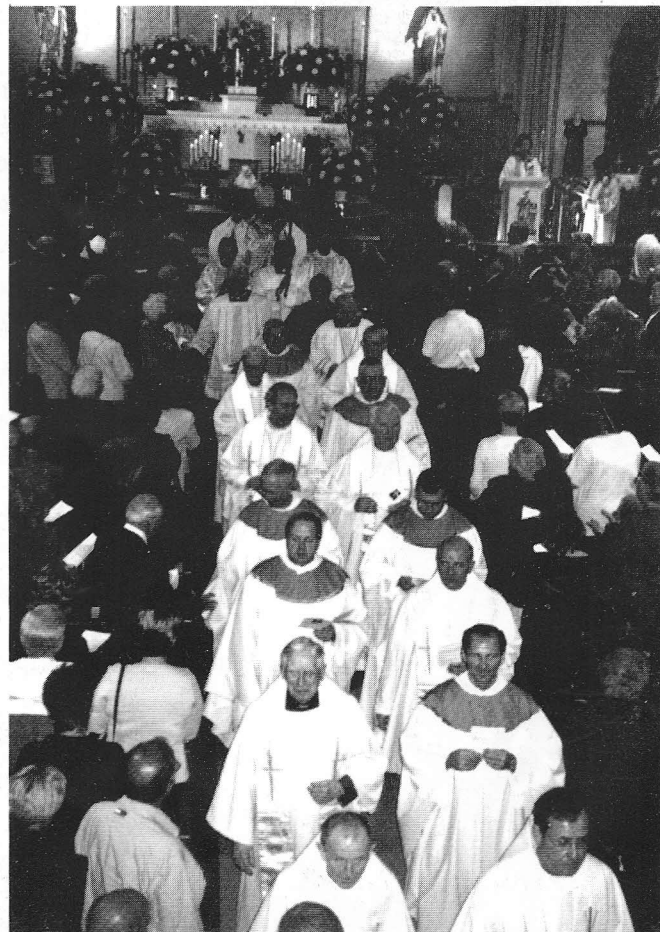

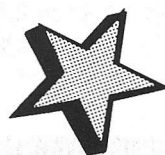

...Anthony wasn't so smart.

...Lenny wasn't so clumsy.

...Mrs. Polizzi wasn't the best teacher in the world.

To the Parents and Graduates of the Class of 2000

*May the road rise to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face.
May the rains fall soft upon your fields.
And until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of His hand.*

*Congratulations,
Good Luck, and God Bless.*
